Dr. Peter Cullen Memorial Bursary Application Form

This bursary is to cover the registration cost of the 2024 ANSM Conference, held in Lunenburg, October 3-4, 2024.

Requirements

- Eligible applicants must be a member in good standing with ANSM (affiliate and corporate members are not eligible). Only one applicant per member institution may apply.
- Applicants must be attending the full conference.
- Successful applicants will be reimbursed for the cost of conference registration after attending the conference.
- Applications are due August 16, 2024 and must be submitted via email to director@ansm.ns.ca.

Criteria

All applications are reviewed by ANSM's Bursary Committee. Applications will be evaluated based on the following considerations.

1. Application must be completed in its entirety and by the submission deadline
2. Financial Need
3. Application self-identification
  - a. Bursaries will be distributed based on the following categories:
    - i. Equity-deserving group
      1. The definitions and categories of designated groups used here are borrowed from Acadia University's Human Resources and consistent with those used by Census Canada, the Employment Equity Act, (1995) c.44, the Federal Contractors Program, and African Nova Scotian Affairs.
    - ii. Emerging museum professionals

1. The bursary committee recognizes the definition of Emerging Museum Professional as described in the Emerging Museum Professional Canada Collective Guiding Terms, sect. 9, 2024: “An Emerging Museum Professional (EMP) is a person who self-identifies as an EMP and who is within the first 10 years of their career in the museum, culture, and heritage sectors. The term Emerging Museum Professional is not delineated by age category, education history, or work history. EMPs can be individuals entering a profession, those interested in pursuing a profession, those who may be transitioning into a different profession, and more.”

iii. General (everyone)

Application forms and self-identification information shared on the forms will not be distributed externally outside of the ANSM bursary committee.

4. Letter of Intent (50%)

a. Application will be heavily evaluated based on the merit of the applicant’s letter of intent, including what they hope to gain from attending the conference, and how the conference will benefit their professional development.
